I came from Al-a - bam - a with my ban - jo on my knee,
It rained all night the day I left, the weather it was dry,
I'm going to Lou'-si - an - a my true love for to see.
The sun so hot I froze to death, Su - san - na don't you cry.
O Su - san - na, O don't you cry for me,
For I've come from Al-a - bam - a with my ban - jo on my knee.

I had a dream the the other night, when everything was still;
I thought I saw Susanna, acoming down the hill;
The buckwheat cake was in her mouth, the tear was in her eye,
Says I, I'm coming from the South, Susanna, don't you cry!
O, Susanna...

I soon will be in New Orleans, and then I'll look all 'round,
And when I find Susanna, I'll fall upon the ground.
But if I do not find her, I'm surely bound to die,
And when I'm dead and buried, Susanna, don't you cry!
O, Susanna...
